established laws. He said that they had not sought to convert the people to their opinions, but to terrorize them, and to subject them to their will by reducing them to a state of abject fear. In referring to the law against associations of malefactors, and indicating the prisoners seated near him, with a sweep of his hand, he said: "The real title of these men is assassins, not Anarchists. This is, therefore, merely a matter of common law." The Anarchist's chief desire, he said, is to kill all these whose duty it is to enforce the law. He made a striking reference to the red robes of the French magistrates, saying that the judges were like soldiers-when one was killed another stepped forward to take his place. The prosecutor caused a sensation when he read a letter from a Belgian magistrate informing him that Anarachists were sending cartridges to Paris. He concluded by calling upon the jury to return a verdict against Ravachol and Simon without any recommendation of mercy and to return a severe verdict against Lafilla. In regard to Chaumartin, he left the jury to bring in | don police are also on the alert, and are I verdict in accordance with the evidence. "Regarding Rosalie Soubre," he said, "con-ult your hearts and consciences." The prosecutor's speech, which lasted two hours, will be memorable in the annals of the bar for close reasoning and brilliant | characters, or authorizing the police to invective.

The prisoner Simon is a youth of eighteen years, with squinting eyes and a villainous appearance generally. Lafilla and Chaumartin present a more pleasing appearance. Rosalie Soubre was pale and squalid, with unkempt hair.

The court took a recess and re-assembled at 9 P. M. Lagasse immediately began his address for Ravachol. He complained that the law has been distorted in order to | most exclusive degree. Some of the Lonconvict the accused. M. Beaupair, interposing, said that the new law applied to property, while the old law was limited to the protection of persons. M. Lagasse, continuing, said it was impossible to deny that the prisoners' offenses were political, and he reproached M. Beaupare for describing them as common law crimes. Ravachol, he said, only wanted to assist the poverty-stricken class to which he himself belonged. A Montbrison jury, dealing with the charge of murder, could be pitiless against Ravachol, but the Seine jury should only consider the dynamite attempts in the Rue Clichy. The police, he said, had acted as veritable brutes. He appealed to the jury to imagine themselves In the world of misery with which Rava-choi was acquainted, and said that one must be of great strength of mind to resist becoming an Anarchist in the face of such scenes of misery and acts of injustice.

PARISIANS PANIC STRICKEN

Fearful that the Anarchists Will Do More Damage-The Explosion at Very's.

Paris, April 26.-To state that the explosion last night at the case of M. Very, at the corner of the Boulevard Magenta and Rue Lancey, has caused a feeling of consternation in this city is to put it very mildly. The truth is that the people of Paris are panic stricken at the audacity of the Anarchists. The feeling of fear is heightened by the apparent impotency of the police to prevent the Anarchists from committing outrages when and where they please. The recent raids made by the police upon lodgings occupied by Anarchists, and the arrests of over two hundred persons suspected of being engaged in conspiring against the peace, led the people to believe for the time that the authorities were fully able to cope with the Anarchists, but last night's explosion, which occurred at the very time the cafe was guarded, has caused a revulsion of feeling, and it may be said that all sense of security has been lost and people do not know where to turn for protection. Of course, there is really no reason for such a widespread panic as now prevails, but the trouble is that the frequency of dynamite outrages has caused the people to abandon reason and to give themselves up wholly to the thought that they, perhaps, may be next the victims of the blind desire of the Anarchists to wreak vengeance.

There was a reason for last night's outrage. It was in M. Very's cafe that Ravachol was arrested, and it was to M. Very and one of his waiters that the police were indebted for the information that led to his capture. The government rewarded M. Very and the waiter for the information they had furnished, and the friends of the prisoner threatened them with dire vengeance. The government sought to prevent these threats from being carried into effect and detailed a special guard to watch the premises. In spite of these precautions, the Anarchists succeeded in blowing the place up and the result is that confidence has been lost in the efficiency of the police and Paris is given over temporarily to a mild reign of terror. The Gaulois and Matin this morning openly reproach the government with incompetency and demand that something be done and done immediately to put an end to the outrages. So strong is the feeling of fear that many residents of the city and hurried preparations to leave. The report that M. Very had died from the effects of his injuries was incorrect. It is said at the hospital to-day that it is thought his recovery is possible. His wife and daughter Jeanne were badly burned about their faces, but it is not thought that their condition is serious, though they are suffering a great deal from shock. Paul Hammond, a printer, who was in the restaurant at the time of the explosion, is horribly wounded in various parts of his body. His condition is critical. Another printer named Gaudon Regy was severely burned. The other injured persons are progressing toward recovery.

L. Herot, the waiter in M. Very's restaurant who informed the police of the habit of Ravachol of dining there, received an anonymous letter yesterday in which it was said: "If Ravachol is condemned tomorrow, remember that at the same hour you will be attacked by the engines of our vengeance." A representative of the press had an interview with L. Herot to-day. He said that about 8 o'clock last evening a party consisting of three men and three women dined in the restaurant. They engaged him in conversation, and asked whether, in view of the part he had taken in the arrest of Ravachol, he was not afraid that the friends of the Anarchists would seek vengeance upon him. L. Herot replied casually and turned conversation to another sub-Since the arrest of Ravachol the restaurant had gained great celebrity and many fashionable people, women and men went there out of curiosity and dined. L. Herot was usually present, and the customers made a practice to talk with him about Ravachol. The conversation last night did not, therefore, excite any suspicion in his mind that perhaps the party were friends of Ravachol, and were themselves seeking revenge. He regarded the matter lightly until after the explosion. Then he recalled several significant incidents that had occurred. After dining the women departed first. One of the men paid the bill of the party and went toward the door, which he held open. One of his companions placed a parcel under a table beside the counter, while the third man ignited a match and lighted a cigarette. Prior to lighting the cigarette he held the match under the table, apparently to avoid the vapor emitted. After the cigarette was lighted both men hastily joined their companion, who was still at the door, and all quickly departed down the Rue Lancier. Soon afterward the explosion occurred. The theory that the explosion was occasioned in this manner does not agree with the result of the inquiry that has been made. The engineers believe that a dynamite bomb was placed at the threshold of the restaurant, which had a double door, one section of which is generally open, resting against the counter. The flooring at the doorway was covered with a plate. The bomb appears to have been deposited about four inches from this plate, inside the restaurant. The landlady of the hotel situated over the restaurant declares that a half hour before the explosion occurred two men dressed as peasants and carrying a bag between them applied to her for a room. She did not like their looks, and refused to accommodate them.

Premier Loubet to-day visited the perons injured by last night's explosion and sured them of the solicitude of the govrument for their welfare. Traffic near the lestaurant is still greatly interrupted. Two men who shouted "Vive l'Anarchie" were arrested near the Palace of Justice

The Temps, expecting that enemies of the republic will use the Anarchists' attempts as weapons against the government, calls upon all Republicans to rally around the Ministry. La France says: "The peo- | tion platform and kissed her hand. FLOCKING TO ENGLAND. French Anarchists Seek Refuge Across the Channel-Police on the Alert.

Special to the Indianapotis Journal. LONDON, April 26.—The influx of foreign Anarchists into England continues unchecked. Several of these undesirable immigrants are reported to the police as having arrived from France to-day. It is considered likely that they were among those who arranged yesterday's explosion in Very's cafe, and that they left France to avoid the extraordinary vigilance which now characterizes the police of that country in the search for Anarchists. The Londoing all they can to keep watch of the dangerous invaders. Despite the appeals of the press the government has as yet shown no disposition to move in the direction of a law restricting the immigration of such deal summarily with them upon arrival. Therefore, all that the guardians of the peace can do is to spot the suspects and be ready for wholesale arrests in case the necessity for action should arise. A number of police officials from the continent are in this city consulting the local officials, getting and giving information about the Anarchists who now occupy the attention of the authorities all over Europe to an aldon detective force have gone to the provinces to watch for the arrival of Anarchists at the various ports, and notify the nome officials to look out for the new-

Many persons were the street at the time of the explosion yet nobody saw the bemb placed. The gate-posts were blown to fragments, and the windows of the consular building were shattered. The houses for a hundred yards from the consulate were shaken by the shock, and the occupants ran out in a panic. A crowd of several hundred gathered before the scene of the explosion, but were driven away by the police, who cleared the street before the building and still guara the entrance. The conculate has been closed for the day.

Preparing for May Day.

BRUSSELS, April 26.- The government is drafting measures to repress anarchism. Stringent laws will be adopted regulating the use of dynamite. The grenadiers, carbineers and other branches of the militia have been called out for service on May day.

VIENNA, April 26.—The Paris explosion is the sole topic of conversation here. The news of the explosion created consternation in some quarters, it being feared that similar outrages will be attempted here. It is rumored that bombs intended to be used on the occasion of the Radetzky celebration on Sunday last were discovered by the police. The latter, however, deny the truth of the rumor, and declare that there are no Anarchists in Vienna. The Socialists and laboring classes have resolved that their May day manifestations shall be of the quietest description.

ROTTERDAM, April 26.-Two girls, Socialists, were arrested in this city to-day for distributing on the streets copies of a pamphlet containing insulting references to the Queen Regent and the young Queen Wilhelmina.

ROME, April 26.-A number of the Anarchist leaders in this city and in other towns of Italy were quietly taken into custody by the police last night. This action was taken simply as a matter of precahtion and not from any known threatened danger.

BORDEAU, April 26.-A dynamite cartridge was exploded this afternoon in the hall of the residence of the Swiss consulat Debourne, a suburb of this city. No damage was done, but the affair has caused much excitement.

BERLIN, April 26 .- The police of this city made another raid upon lodgings occupied by Anarchists. They succeeded in capturing twenty prisoners and in seizing a quantity of the usual literature.

Will Not Change the Divorce Law. LONDON, April 26.—In the House of Commons, this evening. Mr. Hunter moved the second reading of the bill providing that desertion or adultery on the part of either party to a marriage contract shall be ground for a divorce. Attorney-general Webster opposed the bill, saying that there were many practical reasons against extending the facilities for obtaining a divorce. Mr. Kelly opposed the bill. He said that in some parts of the United States a divorce could be obtained for a few dollars, but the practice was viewed with horror by the better section of the American people, who felt that the law of divorce in the United States was a scandal. Mr. Kelly said he hoped that Great Britain would not follow America, but would uphold the sanctity of marriage. Mr. Hunter's motion was rejected by a vote of 71 to 40.

Row at a Woman Suffrage Meeting. LONDON, April 26 .- Lady Florence Dixie presided at a meeting held in St. James Hall this evening in support of Sir Albert

Rollit's woman suffrage bill. The speakers were much annoyed by a noisy minority and toward 10 o'clock, while Bernard Shaw was speaking, the platform was stormed by the malcontents. The reporters' table and the platform rails were demolished and a free tight ensued, which, after twenty minutes, ended in a victory for the malcontents. They then placed their own leader in the chair and carried a resolution declaring that Sir Albert Rollit's partial measure is unworthy of support and that full female franchise out to be given.

Will Not Dissolve Soon.

LONDON, April 26 .- In the House of Commons Mr. Henry Labouchere asked Mr. Balfour, the government leader, whether, in the event of the dissolution of Parliament between September and December. the government contemplated the introduction of a bill to enable all persons who are qualified after July to vote, and thus enfranchise many who, though legally qualified, were not yet on the voting register. Mr. Balfour said that dissolution was remote and uncertain. The government did not think it necessary to take any of the steps suggested by Mr. Labouchere.

Victoria at Darmstadt.

DARMSTADT, April 26.-Queen Victoria arrived here from Hyeres at 9 o'clock this morning. Her Majesty traveled as Countess of Balmoral. No special reception was given her upon her arrival owing to the fact that the royal family is in mourning for the Grand Duke of Hesse. Prince William and Henry of Hesse, Prince Albert of Schleswig-Holstein and Princess Henry of Prussia received the Queen at the sta-lined the route followed by the royal party and the Queen was the recipient of many respectful greetings.

The Silver Question in England. LONDON, April 26.-Lord Salisbury, Mr. Goschen and Mr. Balfour have consented to receive an influential deputation from the chambers of commerce and from the commercial community, whose object it is to urge the promotion of an international agreement looking to an unrestricted coinage of gold and silver as a remedy for the embarrassment in trade arising from the violent fluctuations and uncertainty of exchange with silver-using countries.

The Panama canal enterprise is on the verge of collapse. Henry Duveynir, the African explorer, committed suicide at Severes yesterday.

During a squall on the Havel lakes three boats were capsized and seven of their ocoupants were drowned. It is reported that the Venezuelan rebels have gained another victory over the government troops in a battle fought on the plains near Valencia.

George Henry Wood, twenty-six years old, formerly a porter at the Brighton railway station, was hanged, at London, yesterday, for the murder of Edith Jeal, five years old, in a shed, at Kemptown, in December last.

Creamer and White, who are charged with robbing the firm of Dix & Phyfe, New York bankers, were searched shortly after their arrest at Copenhagen. The police found $4,000 stiched in the lining of their clothes and concealed in the soles of their boots.

Hon. Patrick Greiville-Nugent, brother of Lord Greiville, who is charged with having assaulted Miss Price in a compartment of a train running from London to Brighton on the night of April 18, was again arraigned at London yesterday, and was committed for trial. ## TO-DAY'S POLITICAL CONTESTS.

conventions were held to-day at Denver and Salids. In the former Joseph F. Sanders and F. M. Downer were chosen as delegates to Minneapolis. The Salida convention selected B. Clark Wheeler and T. C. Graden as delegates. The delegates at large to Minneapolis will be Henry M. Teller, E. O. Wolcott, Hosea Townsend and J. T. Brush. The two first-named are known to be opposed to Harrison, Townsend is thought to be, while Brush has always been looked upon as a Harrison man. The organization of the convention has not yet been decided upon, though ex-Senator Tabor may be temporary chairman.

The resolutions will commend the ad ministration of President Harrison except as to silver, ask for the nomination of a candidate friendly to silver and the insertion of a silver plank in the national platform.

New Jersey's Republican Delegation. TRENTON, N. J., April 26.-The Republican State convention to elect delegates to the national convention of the party will meet here to-morrow at noon. To-night a large proportion of the delegates have arrived. Among those here is the venerable John I. Blair, of Warren county, who has attended all the Republican national conventions, and who will be elected as a delegate at large. The other delegates at large, if to-night's slate holds good, are Gen. William J. Sewell, of Camden; Geo. A. Halsey, of Essex, and Garret A. Hobart, of Passaic. Mr. Hobart is a member of the national executive committee. Ex-Congressman Kean and Congressman Buchanan are here in consultation with the State executive committee. The most interesting business to occupy their attention is the formulation of a platform. A hearty indorsement of Harrison's administration and an arraignment of Democratic government in New Jersey will be among the planks. The convention will organize with Judge John A. Blair, of Hudson, as temporary chairman, and he may be retained as a permanent chairman.

Mischief-Makers at Work in Alabama, BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 26 .- In nearly all the congressional districts the Republicans to-day held conventions and selected delegates to the national convention. The Third, Fourth, Fifth and Ninth districts selected two sets of delegates. In the Ninth district, which held its convention two months ago, another convention was held, which sent a contesting delegation. The only issue is on Chairman Mosely, of the State committee. Missourians Want Harrison.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., April 26,-The Republican State convention, to elect four delegates at large to the Minneapolis convention, will be called to order at 10 A. M. to-morrow. The principal issue at present interesting the delegates is the contest for supremacy between the wing led by Chauncey I. Filley and that opposed to him, known, respectively, as the "Hood-lums" and "Silks." This fight is a purely local affair, having no relation to national matters. There is no anti-administration talk at all here, and no matter who the delegates are, they will be for President Har-grams to the Bee from Kearney indicate that, whatever else may result, the Republican State convention will send a solid Harrison delegation to Minneapolis. There is much striving among aspiring candidates for the honor of selection as delegates at large, but there is only one sentiment among the members of the convention, that is the administration shall receive a hearty indersement. Braliner D. Slaughter, United States marshal for Nebraska, has been agreed upon as chairman of the convention, which meets at 11 A. M. to-morrow.

New Hampshire Republicans. CONCORD, N. Dudley Freeman, of Yarmouth. The temporary chairman of the convention will be Hon. A. R. Savage, of Auburn.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 26.-It may be safely stated that the delegates at large to be chosen by the Republican State convention, to be held here on Thursday, will be Chauncey M. Depew, Thomas C. Lawyer Johnson and Judge Gresham Deny Stories-The Latter Not a Candidate. United Press Dispatch.

CHICAGO, April 26.-Friends of Judge Walter Q. Gresham were greatly exercised to-day over the dispatch sent out from Indianapolis in which the jurist's name was used in connection with the third or People's party's choice for the presidency. It is charged that these and similar dispatches which from time to time have appeared in the newspapers throughout the country under Indianapolis date-lines are instigated by the adherents of President Harrison. That the dispatch sent out from the Hoosier capital Monday night had no foundation in fact was proved to-day upon the arrival in Chicago of lawyer T. E. Johnson, of Indianapolis. "The story is a lie, pure and simple." said Mr. Johnson. "Outside of Indianapolis and among the friends of Judge Gresham throughout the country this yarn might carry some weight. To any one who knows me, however, the story could be recognized as a silly falsehood. In the first place 1 am a rockribbed, orthodox Democrat of the Hoosier State. I am not in the secrets of the People's party, and know none of its plans. It was known in Indianapolis yesterday that I was coming to Chicago, and it is also well known that I am an old neighbor of Judge Gresham. What would be more natural than that I should pay him a social takes the portfolio of the Treasury in the call. I am in Chicago on legal business. in no way connected with the l'eople's party.' "The statement that I have written letters showing a willingness to accept the nomination of the People's party is entirely without foundation," declared Judge Gresham to-day. MAINE IS FOR HARRISON.

Senator Hale Says Mr. Blaine Is Out of the Presidential Race for Good.

NEW YORK, April 26.-The Herald's Washington correspondent sends the following to his paper:

"Blame is not a candidate: he is out." This was the emphatic declaration made to me to-day by Senator Eugene Hale, of Maine, with the express understanding that it might be made public as coming from him. Senator Hale says that the Maine delegation will be for Harrison. He does not seem to have heard of ex-Speaker Reed as a presidential candidate. er even as a delegate at large to Minne-

"For whom will the Maine delegation vote!" "For Harrison, without a doubt," was the reply.

"Will they be instructed?"
"No," replied the Senator, "we never instruct our delegates to presidential conventions. We never did when Mr. Blame was a candidate. I do not think that any of the New England delegates are ever instructed, and I doubt if any will be this "The delegates would be for Blaine, I suppose, if he were a candidate?" "Oh, yes; but Blaine is not a candidate; he is out. "That is the general impression among his friends, is it not?" "Yes," was the reply. "When he wrot his recent letter of declination he meant it He has abandoned all presidential ambitions. His health would not permit him to accept the nomination. He will never again be a candidate, or allow the use of his name.'

"He has been reported as saying that he would not accept a nomination for the presidency on a silver salver." "Yes, I have heard that," said the Senator, "and I have no doubt he said it; it sounds like him.' "Will Harrison get all the delegates from New England?" "I feel very sure of it," was the reply. "With Blaine out, there is no other name mentioned in our part of the country."

Depew Knocks Out a Silly Story. New York, April 26 .- The Mail and Express says: "The latest effort to throw cold water upon the candidacy of President Harrison to succeed himself is a publication which accuses Hon. Chauncey M. Depew of treating the subject coolly. Mr. Depew was to-day shown a report that he 'talked in a patronizing way about the President being a safe man, with good instincts and all that sort of thing.' "Why," explained Mr. Depew, smiling, "I was the first one to suggest that Presi dent Harrison should succeed himself: that was more than a year ago, and I have seen no reason to change my mind since that time. AN INFAMY COMPLETED,

The New York Gerrymander Passed by the Legislature-Hill Tickled.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 26.-The Legislature has passed the reapportionment bill and the extra session is at an end. Before the bill passed the Senate it was amended so that one member was taken from New York county and given to Stenben, and one member from Kings county and given to Dutchess. This leaves New York with thirty members and Kings with eighteen. a gain of six each. The other two counties named will have two members each, instead of one. The Assembly accepted the Senate amendments and passed the bill. The Legislature adjourned sine die.

A Washington dispatch says: Senator David B. Hill was talking with Congressman Cummings to-night when he received the news of the passage of the legislative apportionment bill. In conversation with Mr. Commings he said: "I do not conceal my gratification over the result of the new apportionment made by the Legislature. It is the crowning act of last fall's victory. Its importance cannot be overestimated. It enables the people for the first time in thirty years to be equitably and fairly represented in the Legislature and gives to the Democratic party hereafter the control of that body in both branches. The apportionment is both morally right and constitutionally correct. The pretense of the Republicans that it is unconstitutional will avail them nothing. The court must and will decide against them, because their claims are frivolous and ungrounded.
